

Hong Kong Bar Association
Press Statement on Introducing Legislation against Discrimination

The Hong Kong Bar Association notes the Statement of the Equal Opportunities Commission and the Gender Research Centre of the Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies, The Chinese University of Hong Kong dated 9 March 2017.

The Hong Kong Bar Association agrees with the call in the Statement that the HKSAR Government should start public consultation on introducing legislation against discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation, gender identity and intersex status as soon as possible.

Hong Kong Bar Association
Dated: 9 March 2017