Statement of the Hong Kong Bar Association on the Resignations of Two Non-Permanent Judges of the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal

The Hong Kong Bar Association notes with deep regret the resignations of two overseas Non-Permanent Judges of the Court of Final Appeal. The Bar respects their personal decision and is also grateful for their contributions to the development of our jurisprudence and the rule of law in Hong Kong.

The Bar strongly believes that their resignations will not affect the ability of our apex court in discharging its judicial functions and has every confidence in the independence of our judicial system.
